

New CAD details available at ARCAT.com

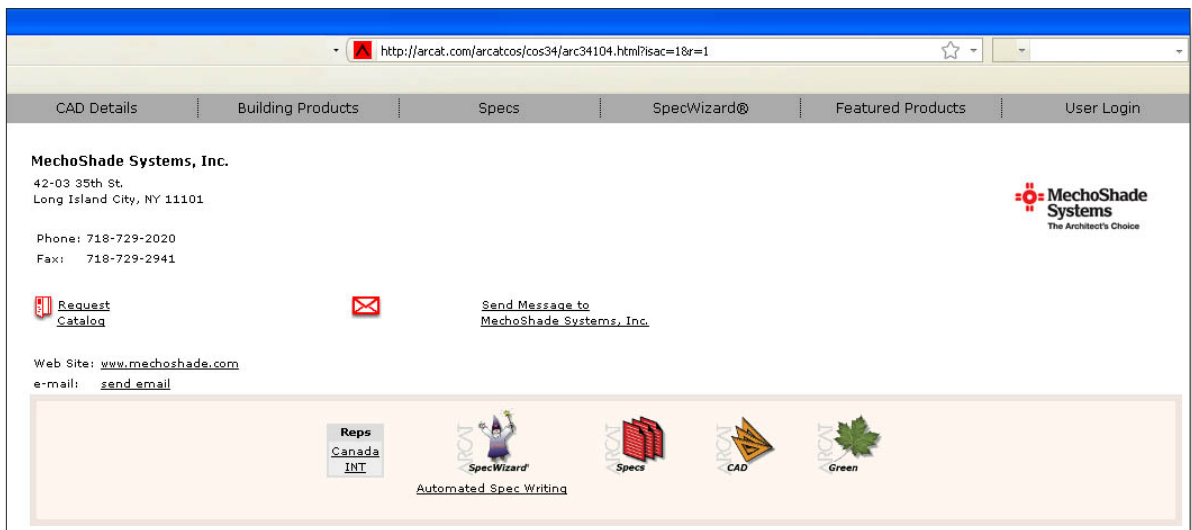

It's now even easier to get the product information you need.

When you want details about a MechoShade Systems product, you don't want to have to hunt them down.

We've uploaded files on our manual and motorized shades to ARC4T.com, making it simple to get the information needed to install our shade systems.

To find our CAD details and specifications, visit <http://www.arc4t.com/arc4tcos/cos34/arc34104.html>, or go to ARC4T.com and type "MechoShade Systems" into the search box.

We have also recently expanded our own Web site's access to CAD drawings. To obtain those files, please visit MechoShadeSystems.com, and click on "construction drawings" in the top right.
